

Art Therapy uses the process of creating images to explore thoughts, emotions, memories, or situations. A trained Art Therapist is a counsellor who has specialized training in the Art Therapy process. She will support, guide and encourage you through the art process and help you to explore any feelings that arise.

It's an exciting way to work on personal issues.